

How to Verify Your Audio

Follow the steps to verify your live classroom audio with the Audio Setup Wizard.

Audio Setup Wizard

In the Meeting dropdown menu, select Audio Setup Wizard.

Adobe	Meeting	Layouts	Pods
Video	 	Meeting Infor Access & Entr Ny Role
	Preferenc Audio Se	es tup Wizard
		o Prepare Mo resenter Only
	End Meet Exit Adol	ing ve Connect

Select the Next button to proceed.

3

The Test Sound Output page tests your speakers. Select the Play Sound button to make sure you hear the system audio, and then select the Next button.

Audio Setup Wizard - St Test Sound Output	ep 2(5) are connected and turned on. The volume should be set lay Sound to check your speakers, if you do not hear the
Stop Sound	r playing test sound
Help	Cancel Prev Next

From the dropdown menu, select the headset or microphone you wish to use and select the Next button.

To hear audio from Adobe Connect choose a Speakers (Logitech USB Headset)	a speaker below.
Speaker/HP (Realtek(R) Audio)
Speakers (Logitech USB Headset)	click Next and Adobe Conn
VX2476 Series (Intel(R) Display Audio)

To test that your microphone is working, select the Record button. Speak the sentence listed on screen. Note: If a voice and camera authorization message appears on your screen, select Allow.

A blue progress bar will appear as you speak. Select the Stop button and then the Play Recording button to make sure your voice has been properly recorded.

When finished, select the Next button.

The second secon
Tune Microphone Volume
To ensure that your microph	one is working properly, click Record, and read the nicrophone. Click Stop once you are done and click the Play Recording button to Please speak "I can see the re	cording bar is moving and my microphone is working properly" or anything you des	ire
Record
- Record
	Play Recording
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Help	Cancel Prev Nex

4

5

You can ignore the Tune Silence Level page. This is only available if your administrator activates it. Select the Next button.

Select the Finish button to exit.

For any other technical issues visit: https://helpx.adobe.com/ca/support/connect.html